Kate F. Moroney

(516) 265-9600 | kfmoroney@loyola.edu | www.linkedin.com/in/kfmoroney

EDUCATION

Loyola University Maryland, Baltimore, MD May 2026
BA in Economics and Political Science via the Honors Program
GPA: 3.91
Awards: Dean's List (Spring 2023, Fall 2023, Spring 2024, Fall 2024, Spring 2025, Fall 2025), National Leadership Honor Society Officer, National Political Science Honor Society Officer, International Society in Economics Member
Relevant Coursework: Marketing, Political Communications, Advocacy Management, Managerial Economics, Health Economics, Congressional Politics, Interest Groups and Lobbying, Strategic Intelligence

WORK EXPERIENCE

Woodberry Associates, Spring Intern, Washington, D.C. January 2026 – May 2026
- Assisted in the day-to-day management of 40+ nonprofit, coalition, and patient advocacy clients, supporting stakeholder engagement and organizational operations.
- Conducted research on health care and education policy issues; synthesized findings into clear, concise written materials for five internal divisions and external use.
- Managed 80+ tasks in a fast-paced environment, demonstrating strong time-management, adaptability, and attention to detail.
- Drafted policy and media materials for clinicians across the country, who practicing in a range of disease states and serve on a clinician advisory council, to inform policy at the state and federal level; worked mainly on issues of access and affordability.
- Built deep professional relationships while contributing to team projects and participating in strategic discussions, including weekly team meetings, on policy priorities and advocacy efforts.

AstraZeneca LP, Federal Government Affairs Intern, Washington, D.C. May 2025 – August 2025
- Conducted research on healthcare policy issues, such as drug pricing, 340B program, the MINI Act, reimbursement, Medicare and Medicaid coverage, and access to medicines for the rural population, to provide concise reports to senior leaders.
- Monitored, analyzed, and synthesized federal legislative and regulatory developments across key issue areas impacting the pharmaceutical industry to inform strategic planning and stakeholder engagement.
- Prepared policy briefs, legislative summaries, and advocacy materials to inform internal stakeholders and support AstraZeneca's public policy objectives.
- Presented 94-slide research project on policy and regulatory barriers to coverage for serial NGS testing, preventing advanced precision medicine from becoming the new standard of care for cancer patients, and created approaches for education and advocacy on this issue at the federal level.
- Created and managed the AZPAC budget for the following year by listing how much to give to each politican based on shared initiatives, goals, and policy priorities.
- Participated in 50+ direct meetings with legislators, AZPAC board members, trade association leaders, advocacy organizations, and other external partners and contributed to discussion about the state of health care; facilitated follow-up conversations.

Suffolk County DA's Office, Violent Crimes Enterprise Bureau Intern, Hauppauge, NY June 2024 – August 2024
- Accessed confidential records and the Criminal Law Handbook of New York, to aid attorneys in legal research and help them determine the legal standing of unclear issues, putting findings in memorandums.
- Translated messages from Spanish to English from group chats of 200+ individuals affiliated with gangs for attorneys to utilize as evidence in prosecutions.
- Analyzed 100+ hours of surveillance footage to identify defendants and recorded minutes to provide the assistant district attorneys with a timeline of events surrounding violent crimes.
- Read records of grand jury presentments, witness testimony, and trial proceedings to gain a better understanding of the legal process and context on assigned cases.

Baltimore Council on Foreign Affairs, Student Intern, Baltimore, MD January 2024 – May 2024
- Compiled lists of 100+ potential patrons to provide funding for the council's efforts to empower citizens to monitor foreign policy critically and engage in national debates.
- Documented minutes for speaker events, part of the Distinguished Speakers Series, for member materials and to author biographies for the BCFA webpage.

- Used my customer service and social skills to greet high-profile members and speakers, including the former United States Ambassador to the Republic of Lithuania, at events with 200+ attendees.
- Authored a 700-word blog post about the forced displacement of the people of the Sahel region for the website, which touched upon the history of the issue, conflict management techniques, and possible resolutions.
- Facilitated Q&As in front of 200+ person audiences during events related to major pressing foreign policy issues, including the war in Ukraine, and monitored the Zoom chat for additional questions.

NYS County Court, Judicial Intern to the Hon. Tammy Robbins, Mineola, NY June 2023 – August 2023

- Worked directly with Judge and her 2-person staff observing felony trials and hearings from opening statements to verdict, including homicide trials and participated in private conferences with attorneys.
- Observed Felony Youth Part proceedings to expand my knowledge of juvenile cases and advocated for the proper enforcement of laws requiring separation of juveniles and adults in correctional facilities to county sherriffs.
- Attended seminars in Supreme, County, Matrimonial, District and Family Courts, including observing appellate arguments at the Appellate Division, Second Dept. to explore other career paths in the NYS Courts.
- Toured the Nassau County Correctional Facility and learned about inmate programs, housing, and security measures to prevent continued gang activity and drug trafficking.

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Active Minds, President, Baltimore, MD September 2023 – May 2026

- Run weekly 10-member executive board meetings and initiated three student-led committees to engage student leaders in marketing, outreach, and fundraising.
- Facilitate interactive discussions, through social events and educational campaigns, about the importance of mental health awareness to break stigma surrounding mental health while creating a safe, welcoming space for students.
- Created partnerships with five organizations, including the National Alliance on Mental Illness Baltimore, American Foundation for Suicide Prevention, Maryland Pro Bono Counseling, to host events such as "I Will Listen Week" and the First Annual AFSP "Out of the Darkness" Loyola Campus Fundraising Walk.
- Lead fundraising initiatives, collecting over $10,000 for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP) and was number one fundraiser, collecting over $3,000 dollars, for AFSP.

Loyola Politics Club, Community Outreach Organizer, Baltimore, MD September 2023 – May 2026

- Held a voter drive before the 2024 presidential election to promote active citizen participation.
- Conducted monthly meetings where pressing political issues were discussed to educate, inform, and spark debate among students on major policy issues and international affairs.
- Held formal debates with other political clubs on campus to spark healthy rhetoric about opposing views and demonstrate professional respect, alongside teaching members effective argumentative skills.

Loyola Office of Undergraduate Admissions, Tour Guide, Baltimore, MD September 2023 – May 2026

- Acted as the first impression of my school for prosepctive students and families by leading them around a two-hour tour of campus layout, various resources, 150+ student group opportunities, 20+ academic departments, housing, while answering a wide variety of questions.
- Painted a picture of what it is like to be a Loyola student by highlighting my experiences, successes, study abroad semester, valuable relationships, and personal and academic growth over my four years as a student.
- Spoke on behalf of the economics department to 100+ accepted students to share the knowledge, classes, career preparation, and opportunities that await them.
- Informed students of logistics of applying for financial support, honors programs, and specific majors.